Odds and End's found where-ever!

A Clutch option on by someone printing 3D props. Works and allows for the ability to change props easily. The driver has a #2-56 set screw that tightens on a flat ground into the shaft. Prop is bushed with a 3/32" brass tube and then a 1/16" x 0.047" ID for the shaft. Tube in tube. The bail is 1/32" wire and bushed with aluminum tubing.

SHOW AND TELL:

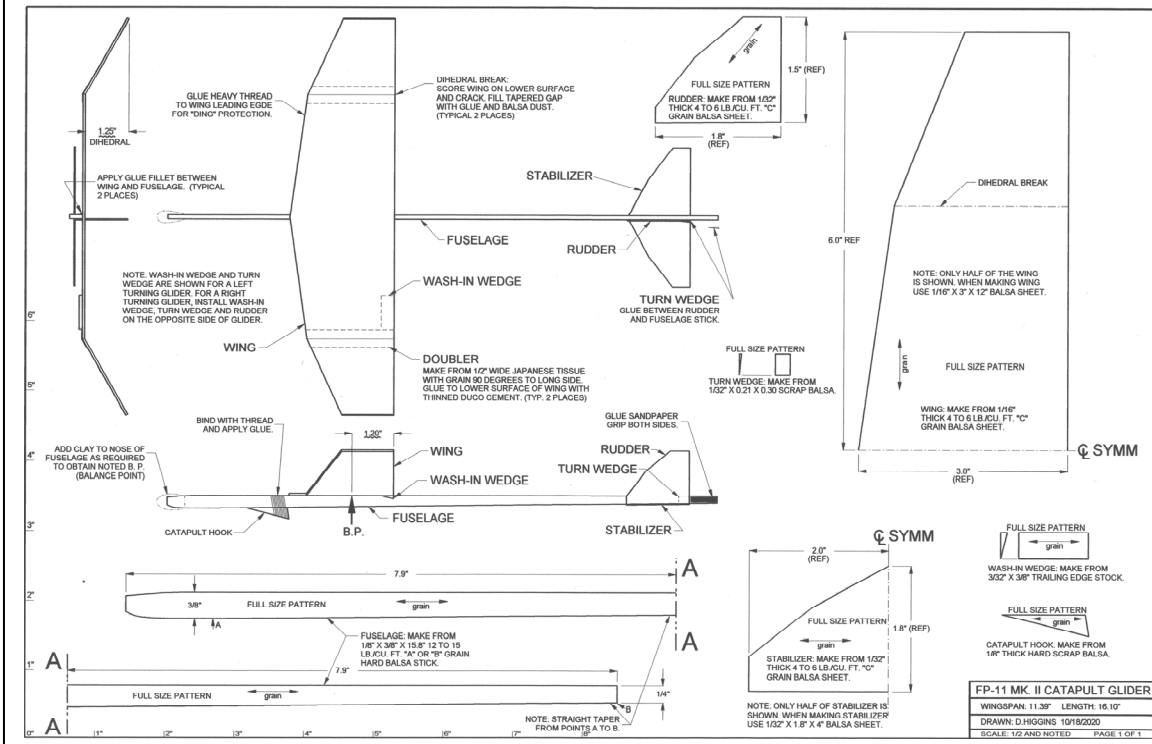

Chuck Powell led off with a Cessna Bird Dog from the Herr kit. He based it on a friend's full scale version – Eddy Huckins.

Bill Schmidt showed his build of the Ace Whittman version of the Mooney Mite. His first attempt, was some 60 years previously when retention of plans was not a usual activity. Bill spent a few hours watching e-bay for another kit, which finally materialized.

Earl Griffith recently downsized his model activities, some basement shots of the stuff that left!!!
